

SERVICE OF COMMEMORATION & REMEMBRANCE

AT THE WAR MEMORIAL
POLICE HEADQUARTERS BRIDGEND

FRIDAY 10TH NOVEMBER 2017 AT 10.50AM

THE GREAT WAR CENTENARY

1914-1918

2014-2018

The Great War, the war to end all wars had a catastrophic effect on humanity and the world as a whole. Great empires centuries old collapsed and disappeared, new countries formed and the world changed forever.

Please take sometime before the service begins to read the following statistics.

- 1.1 million British and Commonwealth soldiers lost their lives.
- 250,000 underage teenage boys enlisted in the army, the youngest age 13 years. 50% were killed.
- The remains of 100,000 troops still lie under the battlefields.
- At the battle of the Somme, 1916 in Picardy, 17,000 British soldiers were killed and 40,000 wounded on the first day of battle.
- 14,287 merchant seamen lost their lives.
- valiant hearts who to your glory came.
- 10 million civilians died of starvation and illness.
- 1 million civilians were killed as the result of military action

POPPIES OF REMEMBRANCE

Delicate and bright, they catch the eye, petals open to embrace the world.
Innocent, they push their way through soil and rubble,
seeking light.
In the light they bring forth colour to a devastated land.
Blood red, they reveal the horrors lived out on the ground of their creation.
Nurtured, nourished, by the rain that fell, the blood shed of human life.
Their birth into the ground of warfare, herald's remembrance.
Delicate and bright, they catch the eye, petals gently
moving in the breeze.
Innocent, and with gentleness, they subvert all the land
has witnessed.
In the light of a new day they bring forth colours of peace and hope.
Blood red, they reveal the pulse and life of love possible in humanity.
Nurtured, nourished by creation, they become our
Remembrance,
Of all that has been, and is, and never should be again.

Chief Constable WELCOME

Chaplain We are gathered here together in the presence of Almighty God to give thanks and to commemorate the sacrifices of those who gave their lives for our freedom.

Amen

Police and Crime

MICAH Ch.4 v.1-5

It shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it, and many nations shall come, and say:

“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways, and we may walk in his paths.” For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

He shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more;

but they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken.

For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.

“REMEMBERED WITH PRIDE”

This year South Wales Police, as part of its commemoration of the centenary of the First World War, remembers fifteen police officers from our predecessor forces of Glamorgan, Cardiff, Swansea and Merthyr, who died during 1917.

It was another year of terrible loss of life especially during the Third Battle of Ypres (the Battle of Passchendaele) which started on 31st July and went on until 10th November, exactly one hundred years ago today.

Amongst the police officers who died in that battle was Constable Percy John Marks of the Cardiff City Police. He was from Somerset and was serving with the Welsh Guards when he was killed in action on 4th September 1917. He was 22 years of age. His sergeant wrote this letter to his father:

“Dear Mr Marks. Just a few lines to inform you of the death of your son. Corpl Marks and myself were very good chums, because we belong to the same battalion and came together on this job. All the boys miss him because he was so cheerful. He always had a smile on his face, and I miss him very much, because he was one of the best NCO’s I had under me. The way he met his death was by a shell dropping right on top of the dugout, killing one NCO and three men. They were killed outright and buried beneath the dugout. I was out digging for him last night and this morning and I shall do my best as a soldier and a pal to see that your son and the others are buried properly. If there is anything you would like to know I shall be only too pleased to help you. Your son was a good soldier and a brave one as well. Please accept the sympathy of all the boys and myself in your great loss. DJ Richards, Sergt.”

The Welsh poet Ellis Humphrey Evans, Hedd Wyn, who died on the first day of the Battle of Passchendaele described such loss in his poem Rhyfel/War:

*Mae’r hen delynau genid gynt Ynghrog ar gangau’r helyg draw
A gwaedd y bechgyn lond y gwynt
A’u gwaed yn gymysg efo’r glaw*

*The harps to which we sang are hung
On willow boughs, and their refrain
Drowned by the anguish of the young
Whose blood is mingled with the rain*

We remember them with pride. Yn angof ni chant fod.

Chaplain We pray now for this nation, giving thanks for it's traditions of freedom and democracy.

Remembering the part we have played in peace and conflict over many decades in all parts of the world. Especially remembering all those who laid down their lives to attain this freedom.

We pray too that in harmony and truth we may continue to seek the way of peace, joining our prayers together as we say the Lords Prayer.

Chaplain Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

BLESSING

Archbishop of Wales Go forth into the world in peace, 'Be of good courage, hold fast to that which is good,' render to no one evil for evil. Support the weak, help the afflicted love and serve the Lord and may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you and all whom you love, now and always.

Amen

SERVICE OF RE-DEDICATION & REMEMBRANCE

NEW MEMORIAL GARDEN
POLICE HEADQUARTERS BRIDGEND

10TH NOVEMBER 2017

ACT OF RE-DEDICATION OF THE NEW FORCE MEMORIAL GARDEN

Chaplain We will shortly hold our Act of Remembrance for those who have died whilst serving with South Wales Police but before doing so I will call upon the Archbishop of Wales, the Most Reverend John Davies, to Re-Dedicate the Force Memorial Garden in its new location. After that, and the Act of Remembrance, we will all proceed to the Memorial Sundial where the Chief Constable will lay a wreath.

Archbishop
of Wales

THE RE-DEDICATION

(The Chief Constable, Police and Crime Commissioner, Archbishop and Chaplain proceed to the new Memorial Garden)

ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

Chaplain We stand before the newly re-dedicated Memorial Garden to remember before God our Father all those we love, but now no longer see, who died whilst a serving member of the South Wales Police, and to give thanks to God for their lives and dedication.

MEMORIAM

Chaplain O gracious Lord, help us to listen lovingly to your Word, that we may find comfort in our grief, light in our darkness, and faith in the midst of doubt; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

JOHN 14: 1-6, 18, 19;

I am the way, the truth and the life

Jesus said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live."

A PRAYER FOR THE DEPARTED

Chaplain

Most merciful God, who in your loving kindness gave us so much joy through your servants departed; we thank you for them and for our memories of them. We praise you for your goodness and mercy that followed them all the days of their life and for their faithfulness in the tasks to which you called them. We bless you that for them the tribulations of this world are over and that death is past; we give them back to you dear lord and we pray that you will bring us with them to the joy of your perfect kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO MOURN

Chaplain

Eternal God we pray for all who mourn, comfort and support and uphold them. Help them to know you are always with them and not to think of the darkness of death, but of the splendour of everlasting life in your presence. In Jesus name we pray. Amen

A PRAYER FOR THE POLICE

Chaplain

Almighty God we bring to you in prayer those who bear responsibility for maintaining law and order in our land especially members of the police service. Give them faith, hope, courage and wisdom to carry out their duties justly and mercifully without fear or favour, so that the innocent may be protected, evil doers be brought to account, the rights of all be defended, so that we as a nation may enjoy the blessing of a just, free and peaceful society... In Jesus name we pray. Amen

BLESSING

Archbishop
of Wales

God grant to the living, grace; to the departed, rest, to us and all his servants, life everlasting; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be with you and abide with you always. Amen

Chief Constable

LAYING OF WREATH AT THE MEMORIAL SUNDIAL

In 2001 South Wales Police unveiled a Memorial Sundial in a garden at Police Headquarters in Bridgend. Made of Welsh slate it contains at its base the inscription:

“To our colleagues who died whilst serving the people of South Wales”

In subsequent years the Sundial has formed a prominent feature in the garden which, with its benches and green spaces, was frequently used as a place for people to sit, especially during summer months.

Most importantly it was also where the families of those who had lost loved ones could place items such as small plaques and flowers to remember them.

Each November following the Service of Remembrance at the War Memorial a service has been held in the Garden when a wreath has been laid by the Chief Constable to remember colleagues who have died.

As a result of the re-development work which has been undertaken on the Headquarters site it has been necessary to re-locate the Memorial Sundial and the

The former Memorial Garden as it was on 11th November 2016

Memorial Garden.

The Sundial now stands prominently in front of the new pavilion building whilst the new Memorial Garden is situated along the frontage of the Main Building. The Garden now contains, in addition to grassed areas interspersed with shrubs and flowers, four semi-circular walls on which are slate panels to which are attached plaques containing the names and other details of all police officers and police staff who have died whilst serving with South Wales Police since its formation in 1969.

Today we will, as always, remember those who have died but we will also re-dedicate the Memorial Garden in a service led by the new Archbishop of Wales, The Most Reverend John Davies, prior to the laying of a wreath at the Sundial.

The location of the Sundial and the Memorial Garden may have changed, but one thing will never change and that is the commitment of South Wales Police to remember all those who have died in its service and in the service of the people of South Wales.

THE GREAT WAR CENTENARY

1914-1918  2014-2018

South Wales Police is currently gathering information about the many serving officers from our predecessor forces of Glamorgan, Swansea, Merthyr Tydfil, Neath and Cardiff who fought and died during the First World War.

We want to ensure we uncover as much information as possible about our proud history, and the many men who served both the force and their country to ensure they are never forgotten.

All the stories and information collected, including photographs, letters and newspaper coverage from that time will be shared online and on Facebook.
