

"Wear your poppy with pride"

They fought for peace, a brave band of brothers,
many young lives sacrificed, for freedom of others.

Today comrades march, as a mark of respect,
shoulder to shoulder, we must never forget.

A day when brave warriors, show their emotions,
honouring our dead, a sad day of reflection.
In the futility of war, many millions were lost,
freeing the oppressed, at whatever the cost.

Their lives they laid down, on far foreign fields,
in battles of bloodshed, never to yield.
Many that died, buried where they fell,
their final nemesis, gas, bullet and shell.

At the eleventh hour today, silence will fall,
remember fallen heroes, who answered the call.
For two minutes we'll bow, offering our prayers,
heroes taken so young, now in the Lord's care.

Their ultimate sacrifice, "LEST WE FORGET"
on this day of days, forever in their debt.
Cardinal poppies, please wear with pride,
a "REMEMBRANCE" symbol, for heroes that died.

Arthur Cole...2017...All Copyright Reserved(158)